

AN AFTERNOON IN NATURE ON ALBANY HILL

April 26, 2026  1:00 – 4:30pm

Albany Hill Plant Walk

Led by Margot Cunningham,

1:00 – 2:30pm

Natural Areas Manager for the City of Albany

Learn about the diverse native plants and habitats on this walk from the bottom to the top of Albany Hill, an urban oasis. Start at the far north end on Madison Street in Albany. Bring water and wear sturdy shoes. Walking sticks are good for steep spots along parts of the trail. LIMITED REGISTRATION: Please reserve at bunchgrassmarg@gmail.com

Albany Hill History Walk

Led by Karen Sorensen, local historian who has written

3:00 – 4:30pm

two books about Albany history.

Learn how the hill withstood dynamite explosions and numerous development schemes and has been a home and playground for many generations. Start at the northwest end of the hill along Pierce Street near the creek. LIMITED REGISTRATION: Please reserve at storiesfromalbany@gmail.com

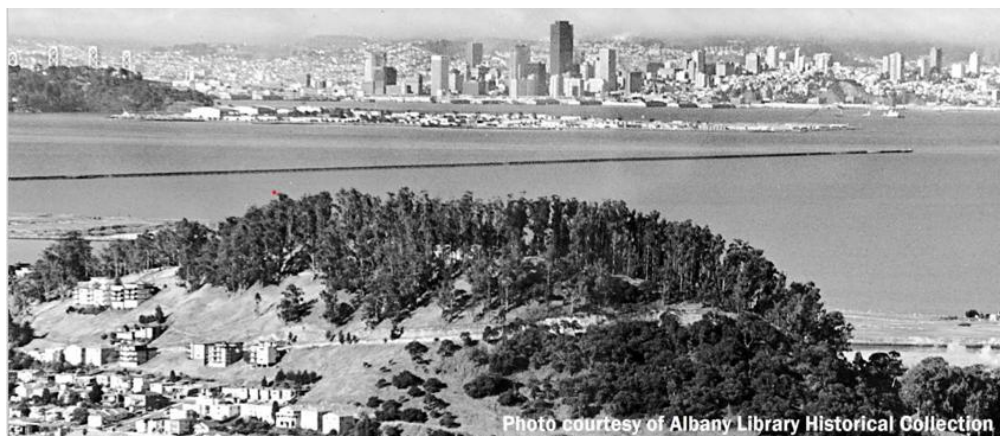

Photo courtesy of Albany Library Historical Collection